Best Practices Survey Questions

Evan Fuller gave a brief update on the Best Practices Survey questions, noting that no Commissioners had suggested any ideas on restructuring the survey. There was a discussion about the survey and feedback about the questions.

Future of the QEC

Chair Mooney shared an update about the unknown future of the QEC, explaining the expectations of the Joint Public Education Appropriations (JPEA) Committee and noting a statement made at the last JPEA meeting about legislators looking into a creating a bill which would eliminate the QEC and shift the Quality Education Model to a third party. This led to a discussion with Commissioners about their thoughts on the update and how it could impact the current work.

Chair Mooney concluded and adjourned the meeting.
