Section C: Retired member benefits awarded to member

- ☐ The retired member is awarded their current OPSRP Pension benefits, with no benefits payable to their former spouse/RDP.
- Note: When a retiree who elected a survivorship option at retirement predeceases their former spouse/RDP, the former spouse/RDP will receive 100% of the monthly survivorship benefit if the former spouse/RDP was named as the beneficiary at the time of retirement, provided the member, if eligible, hasn't "popped up" to the higher paying Single Life Option.
- To restrict a retiree who elected the Full-Survivorship Increase or Half-Survivorship Increase option from popping up to the Single Life Option, complete the Oregon Public Service Retirement Plan (OPSRP) Pension Beneficiary Restrictions Due to Divorce or Dissolution of Registered Domestic Partnership form and include it as a referenced court order exhibit.
- ☐ The retired member is awarded their IAP account and future retirement benefits, with no benefits payable to their former spouse/RDP.

Section D: IAP beneficiary information for non-retired and retired members

Note: If the member's spouse/RDP was the member's designated IAP beneficiary, upon the court ordered dissolution of their marriage/partnership, the former spouse/RDP shall be considered as predeceasing the member for the purpose of determining beneficiaries unless the member expressly designates the former spouse/RDP as beneficiary after the effective date of dissolution or the former spouse/RDP is required to be designated as a beneficiary as a provision of the dissolution.
