Individual Account Program (IAP) No Award

Section A: Member and former spouse/Registered Domestic Partner (RDP) information

Member name	PERS ID (optional)
Former spouse/RDP name

If a member or retiree is awarded their IAP account, check the box that applies. If beneficiary restrictions exist, the Individual Account Program (IAP) Beneficiary Restrictions Due to Divorce or Dissolution of Registered Domestic Partnership form must also be included as a referenced court order exhibit.

Section B: Non-retired member benefits awarded to member

- ☐ The member is awarded their IAP account and future retirement benefits, with no benefits payable to their former spouse/RDP.

Note: If the member's spouse/RDP was the member's designated IAP beneficiary, upon the court ordered dissolution of their marriage/partnership, the former spouse/RDP shall be considered as predeceasing the member for the purpose of determining beneficiaries unless the member expressly designates the former spouse/RDP as beneficiary after the effective date of dissolution or the former spouse/RDP is required to be designated as a beneficiary as a provision of the dissolution.

Section C: Retired member benefits awarded to member

- ☐ The retired member is awarded their IAP account and future retirement benefits, with no benefits payable to their former spouse/RDP.

Note: If the member's spouse/RDP was the member's designated IAP beneficiary, upon the court ordered dissolution of their marriage/partnership, the former spouse/RDP shall be considered as predeceasing the member for the purpose of determining beneficiaries unless the member expressly designates the former spouse/RDP as beneficiary after the effective date of dissolution or the former spouse/RDP is required to be designated as a beneficiary as a provision of the dissolution.
